Five 50km wins in a row for Brett

FASTEST runner in the 25th 50km Road Running Championship was Brett Roach. His string of victories – from 2007 through to 2011 - have all averaged about the same rate per kilometer – 3.40.

The 50kms are spread across three events: 10km, 15km and 25km.

This year fourteen men and nine women did all three, a little down on last year's numbers.

Unfortunately for the other M65s Bob Schickert is back on form, taking about 30 minutes less to cover 50kms than he did in 2010. Other noteworthy achievements are those of Mark Rosen and Graham Thornton, who each completed their tenth championship. Brian Danby has run nine.

Gillian Young won the women's competition with an average of 5:05 min/km, this coming only a few weeks after having competed in the Busselton triathlon. Shirley Bell needs one more to reach her tenth championship.

In the lists, the figure on the left is the number of times the athlete has completed RRC and/or RWC. All who complete receive a medal to be awarded on Presentation Day.

30km Road Walking Championships

THIS was conducted over three events for a total of 30km. Garry Hastie won his first RWC with a rate of 5:31 min/km, while Michelle Mison's win was her sixth. Many athletes are now in double figures for the RRC or RWC.

Michele Mison and Margaret Bennett joined them, completing their tenth RRC/RWC.

Determined – Michele Mison in the Burswood 15km RWC

So consistent – Brett Roach in the Nedlands 15km RRC

UK Parks have the right idea

LES Presland keeps well abreast of running in Perth, through Vetrun.

In his latest letter he says that our impasse with Kings Park is a stark contrast with the UK situation.

'I cannot believe the problems you are having with running in Kings Park. I hope it's resolved soon.'

"In the UK we have the dead opposite. Under a scheme funded by Lucozade called 'Park Runs' the parks all over the UK are opening their gates every Saturday morning for a scratch race.

"It's really taken off, with Bushy Park (s-w London) being one of the best."

Les enclosed pages from Athletics Weekly, carrying results of Park Runs in dozens of cities across the country.

Worlds

Incidentally, if Perth's 2015 Worlds bid is successful, look out for Les.

After a running fall and injury, he decided against spending the dollars on Sacramento, because, he can't do better than around 4.10km at the moment (at M70!).

"I had planned to give up racing after the games (Sacramento) but now I shall keep going, to finish in Perth. So I very much hope you get them!"

A friend in need... is Mary home?

I'VE been helping a neighbour to get an internet connection. Unusual problems required several phone calls to the ISP. I found it most inconvenient having to go and get the neighbour to identify herself each time I rang the ISP. So I formulated a plan to bypass this process.

All I had to do was to say, "I need support, give the applicant's surname (let's call it 'Smith') and the birth date – and Bingo! I got support without referring to my neighbour for identification.

So I followed the same game plan the next day - but things didn't go quite so smoothly. A young lady with an Asian accent took my call and was keen to help. The conversation followed the usual format and went as follows:

"Certainly, and this is for you?"

"Yes."

"And your name is Smith?"

"Er, yes."

"And your first name is Mary?"

I was snookered. No going back now so I responded with:

"Er, yeah."

"May I call you Mary?"

Ouch!!!

"Yes, of course," I replied, rather gingerly.

And for the next ten painful minutes, every time she spoke to me, she addressed me as 'Mary'.

And in response to each question I gave a very poor Dame Edna impersonation.

Needless to say, my wife and Mary, who were in the next room listening, were in stitches, and now won't let me forget the incident.

John Mack's reunion

Lyn Ventris smashes her World Record

MASTERS' pre-eminent female walker slashed almost SIX MINUTES off her own 20km world record in Melbourne last Sunday (May 29) – incredible!

In the Melbourne AMA 20km championship, Lyn walked 1.39.51 to surpass her WR of 1.45.13 set in 2008. That equates to a fraction under 5-min kms. It's all the more impressive given that Lyn is at the top of her age group, moving into W55 later this year.

* Also in the championship, David Smyth (M40) walked 2.05.20 to finish 3rd in his age group.

Lyn Ventris at the Perth Nationals

Busselton Half Iron Man

GILLIAN Young and Hilary Beck were in the swim, bike-ride and run this year, on May 7. Hilary came second in the W55-59 with a total time of 6hrs.13.56.

Gillian was third W60-65 in 7hrs.14.28

(Shouldn't it be Half Iron Woman?)

Below, Fresh from her first Ironman triathlon, Gillian compared experiences with Shirley Bell (a two-times, full Busselton Ironman veteran) at the Nedlands event on May 15.

Galloping Lorraine?

AFTER processing Lorraine Lopes' latest Australian record, in the 3000m, I calculate she has now racked up an amazing 21 State records and six ARs in less than 18 months as an W70. Plus, throw in three relay ARs for good measure. She's the Black Caviar of women's distance running at the moment.

It's our club spirit

PETER Hopper is a nice bloke any way. But last Sunday at Burswood he demonstrated the spirit and camaraderie that epitomises Masters.

I managed to catch him up in the 5km walk – and then he hung on.

"I expect you'll be able to sprint past me at the end," I gasped, as we neared the chute. "How do you go faster?"

"Run," he joked, then "No,

just use quicker steps."

So I did, and won a little victory.

Peter's was a greater one, proving again how many of our members are ready and willing to help their mates, even if it means being overhauled.

When things aren't swell....

MARGARET Saunders was cruelly struck down in the Brisbane nationals 800m while leading the field in her heat. Her bad luck resulted in massive swelling, which she cured overnight with the following process.

You will need:

Lectric Soda Crystals (available in supermarkets, in area of washing powder)

Old sock or tea towel

Clingfilm

Bandaging

Process

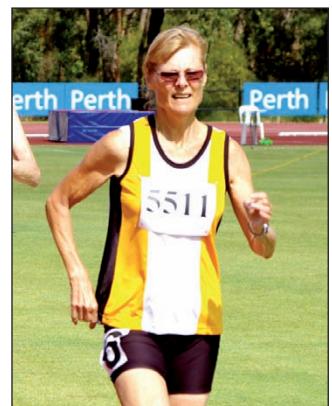

Put a layer of soda crystals – about 1 cm thick – into sock or tea towel.

Place sock on foot; or wrap tea towel around swelling (if it's the knee or other part of body).

Wrap clingfilm around the sock, or tea towel, ensuring there are no gaps.

Bandage over the clingfilm to keep it in place, and leave on overnight.

Ensure you cover the bed with plastic or towels as when the swelling reduces moisture is created.

In the morning you will find that the sock or tea towel will have some crystals remaining but will be wet and stiff with the fluid drawn out of the swelling.

Take the clingfilm, sock etc. off carefully (on a tiled floor, preferably) because it will be wet. Just wash the sock or tea towel and you can then re-use them.

Aquinas Handicap

Director: Lachlan Marr

THE results were a bit slow coming after Aquinas this year. Of course, we have been spoiled since the advent of the 24-hour service provided via our website, but, Richard Danks points out that runners and walkers could make life easier for the recorders.

"I can see why Barrie was pulling out his hair with runners either running more than one race, applying their own handicap, running from scratch and ignoring their handicap, etc.," he writes.

There's still a problem with members failing to wear, or display their numbers properly.

Please make sure that yours can be read easily. If you must make up your own, hand-drawn one (instead of wearing the proper one supplied by the club) make sure it's big enough to be read from a few metres away. And fix it on properly, uncurled and properly fixed.

VW

Just a little side issue; wasn't it wonderful to hear the really extended cheering for Bronwyn Smith: also, I pointed out to her that her dad Brian had won the men's trophy in 1999.

NEDLANDS

May 15, 2011

Director: Jackie Halberg
(for Gary Fisher)

WITH Gary Fisher away, I took responsibility for this run. Gary provided very clear guidelines, so my job was relatively easy. There was a big turnout of runners and walkers for all the distances on offer, particularly the 15KM RRC and 10KM RWC events. It was good to see Garry Hastie up from Bunbury to compete in the walk, and to see members who are coming back from injury, returning to good form - Chris Frampton, Gillian Young, Michele Mison.

Many thanks to all helpers - Berwine and Irwin Barrett-Lennard, Jeff Bowen, Ivan Pilton, Mark Hewitt, Elaine Sillery, Barrie Thomsett, Anne Turner, David Baird, Bruce Wilson.
